

Dear student,

It's the perfect time to start planning for summer 2016! Come to England to study abroad, travel and earn credit with Leeds International Summer School (LISS).

LISS is a four week programme that will run 2 - 31 July 2016. LISS offers you a fantastic opportunity to experience British university life and culture, as well as earning academic credit (20 University of Leeds credits = 6 US credits/10 ECTS).

Choose from a wide range of academic modules:

1. The English Country House: A Social History
2. Heretics, Witches and Conspirators: A History of Fear, 1500-1700
3. Entrepreneurship and Society: Ideas, Opportunities and Value Creation
4. Business and Cultural Awareness: Bridging the Gap
5. Music in Film
6. Building Britain, 1700-1840: Industrial 'Revolution' or 'Evolution'
7. British Literature and the Brontës
8. Introduction to Robotics and Autonomous Systems
9. Exploring the Law: Crime, Contracts and Legal Skills
10. Sport in the UK: Health and Performance Issues
11. Smartphone Applications
12. Wealth and Poverty: The Making of the Modern World

LISS also includes field trips, social activities and excursions plus a weekend trip to London. The 2016 programme fee is £2950 (or £2800 if you submit your application by 23 March 2016!) and there are no hidden costs to pay: tuition, on campus accommodation, social programme, field trips, excursions and full gym membership are included.

If you have a GPA of 3.0 or higher you are also eligible to apply for one of a significant number of Santander scholarships worth £500 each. Please visit our website www.leeds.ac.uk/summer for more details on the programme and to access the online application form.
