

Dear colleagues,

Universidade da Coruña's International Summer School offers a selection of more than 20 intensive three-week courses taught by international faculty in A Coruña from 1 to 19 August 2016 (<http://www.iss.udc.es/periods/1-19-august-2016>). This year we also offer two additional sessions in Iasi, Romania, from 9 to 27 May (<http://www.iss.udc.es/periods/9-27-may-2016>), and in Vila do Conde, Portugal, from 11 to 29 July (<http://www.iss.udc.es/periods/11-29-july-2016>).

Our courses are open to Spanish and foreign undergraduates, graduate students and recent graduates. Courses are taught in English and have an academic value of 6 ECTS credits.

You can see an updated list of all courses at <http://www.iss.udc.es/courses>.

Faculty come from different universities in more than a dozen different countries all around the world and are renowned experts in their fields. They are active in academic research, consultancy or government. Courses are an opportunity for local and foreign students and faculty to engage in an international experience and benefit from their mutual interaction in one of the best venues for a summer school in Europe.

Interested students should apply online (<http://www.iss.udc.es/registration-and-fees>). Informal enquiries can be directed to iss@udc.es.

The first five students registering in each course, with a maximum of two per country, will benefit from early-bird fees (33% discount). Universidade da Coruña also reserves a number of partial scholarships covering 50% of the fees for students from the EU or from low-income, lower-middle income or upper-middle income countries, classified according to GNI per capita, calculated using the World Bank Atlas method.

For further details about individual courses, fees, scholarships, supplementary Spanish language courses, accommodation, and social programme, please visit <http://www.iss.udc.es/>.

Best regards,

Dr. Diego Varela
Coordinator of the International Summer School
