

Job description

Senior researcher position at Faculty of Physical Education and Sport, Charles University. A researcher will a head researcher on project called Attitudinal-behavioral pathway to successful aging: secondary data analysis.

The position is time-limited for 3 years on 1.0 FTE.

Responsibilities:

- You will be responsible of successful project progress
- You will coordinate a team of researchers
- You are expected to publish in highly recognized journals
- You will be responsible for a seminar on research methods /academic writing for PhD's

Desired skills and experiences

- Senior researcher position (at least 5 years after finishing Ph.D)
- University degree in physical education and sport or related area
- International experience – an occupation at research institution out of the Czech republic for 3 years
- Minimum 3 publications in impacted journals in last 5 years
- Participation in national or international grants or projects in last 5 years
- Excellent analytical skills
- Excellent in English

Areas of research

- Aging and exercise in elderly
- Methodology
- Databases such as SHARE

